1. [REDACTED] telephoned me on 13 May to say that he had completed several additional pages of history at [REDACTED] request and forwarded it to the SSHO. [REDACTED] expressed displeasure at what he considered the "unreasonable" request. However he felt personal pride in the work and wanted to finish it rather than have it turned over to someone else.

2. I thanked Dick for his work and again expressed my understanding that the Historical Staff found it to have been very well done.
